HRAdventure Announces the Untamed Virginia Adventure Race

Williamsburg, VA Nov 10, 2006 – HRAdventure announces a new adventure race for 2007: the Untamed Virginia Adventure Race. At 30 hours in duration, and based in the rugged Charlottesville, VA area, the Untamed Virginia Adventure Race promises to be the most challenging race HRAdventure has ever run.

Set for the weekend of June 9th, 2007 the Untamed Virginia Adventure Race will challenge teams of 2, 3, or 4 racers to paddle, bike, trek, and orienteer the 100+ mile secret course under their own power – no outside assistance in terms of transportation, food, or water is permitted.

Blue Ridge Mountain Sports, headquartered in Charlottesville, is the presenting sponsor of the race and will be offering promotions and other adventurous opportunities in conjunction with the race.
